

Part I: Reading

Text 1: How to be eco-friendly in everyday life

Text 1. Questions

1. Reading Comprehension

1. True. “but almost two thirds of people around the world see climate change as a global emergency”
2. False. “But you can also go to the supermarket, and make better choices by buying unpackaged fruit and vegetables, or opting for cans and cardboard that are widely recycled instead of plastic”.
3. True. “if you support your local agriculture market, you’re avoiding the use of a massive amount of energy to bring the bananas to UK and the harms that this use produces in environment”.
4. False. “I only buy a new piece of clothing if another one needs replacing”.

2. Lexicon/ Phonetics

1. Lexicon

1. Waste
2. Shipped
3. Support
4. Massive

2. Phonetics

1. /d/
2. /ɜ:/
3. /iz/
4. waste

Text 2: In isolating times, can robo-pets provide comfort?

Text 2. Questions

1. Reading Comprehension

1. True. “In her nursing home, Charlene Spangler had eaten meals with several other residents, joined art classes and listened to visiting musicians”.
2. False. “She’s more isolated in her room now, Dr. Spangler asked a staff member to take it inside”.
3. True. “Some older people who had dementia and depression and had largely stopped eating started having meals at a fixed time because of the call of their robotic dogs”.
4. True. “while others never feel attached to their electronic pets because they saw them only as devices”

2. Lexicon/ Phonetics

1. Lexicon

1. Request
2. Isolated
3. Joined
4. Devices

2. Phonetics

1. /z/
2. /i:/
3. /t/
4. /ei/

Part II: Use of English

1. This is the most boring book I've ever read.
2. Mark asked me how how I was going to solve that problem.
3. I didn't see the man who took my wallet yesterday.
4. If I had brought money, I could've bought a present.
5. Wonderful sandwiches are made in this restaurant.
6. When did this film start?
7. Unless we find a good hotel, we won't stay in London.
8. They might find a solution soon.
9. Our bags are going to be taken to the station.
10. Martin, whose sister works with me, is my new neighbour.
11. Susan told Mark not to shout in class.
12. If only I saw you more often.